

Media Advisory: Manitoba party leaders to debate on climate and enviro action

Debate on Manitoba Climate and the Environment

Climate has become the most critical issue facing all communities around the globe. With the provincial election on Sept. 10, Manitoba climate and environmental organizations have coordinated a provincial leaders' debate to discuss their strategy of supporting Manitobans facing the global climate emergency.

All are invited to join this free event.

What | Manitoba Leaders Debate on Climate & the Environment: Forum For Our Future

Where | Fort Garry Hotel, Spa & Conference Centre, 222 Broadway Ave, Winnipeg

When | Thursday, Sept. 5, 7-9pm

Who | Invited Speakers:

James Beddome, Green Party Leader (Confirmed)

Wab Kinew, New Democrat Party Leader (Confirmed)

Dougald Lamont, Liberal Party Leader (Confirmed)

Brian Pallister, Progressive Conservative Leader (Unconfirmed)

Moderated by:

Shannon Sampert, retired political science professor at the University of Winnipeg
Anne Lindsey, long time environmental activist and Order of Manitoba inductee

Organized by:

Manitoba Eco-Network, Green Action Centre, Wilderness Committee, Sustainable Building Manitoba, Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives – Manitoba office, Manitoba Public Health Association, Bike Winnipeg, Manitoba Youth for Climate Action, First Unitarian Universalist Church Green Action Committee, Manitoba Energy Justice Coalition.

To coordinate interviews and receive more information, please contact:

Laura Tyler | Sustainable Building Manitoba
204-995-5255, info@sustainablebuildingmanitoba.ca

Eric Reder | Wilderness Committee
204-997-8584, eric@wildernesscommittee.org

Glen Koroluk | Manitoba Eco-Network
204-296-2872, executivedirector@mbeconetwork.org

Draft Program

7:00- Elder opening

7:05- Moderator opening

7:10- Candidate opening statements

7:25- Moderator long answer questions

7:55- Yes/no questions

8:05- Candidate to candidate rebuttals and questions

8:25- Audience Questions

8:45- Fast pitch: Candidates will 'pitch' their best idea for the environment in Manitoba for 3 minutes each.